Declaration of Status of Rodger II-Theodore: Atwood

Declaration of Trust of Rodger Theodore Atwood II

To the honorable Chancellor holding chancery court in Mercer county, West Virginia.

"Petitioner", roder II of the family of atwood, a man living on the land of a union member state, not an actor in the artificial state of society, never having been naturalized as a citizen of a State, nor having sworn allegiance to support any constitution, nor declaring under oath in one of the courts specified in the Act of 1802, my intention to renounce my allegiance to the supreme being known as "God;" and not within a federal territory or district.

Petitioner is the heir apparent to the estate of "rodger of the family of atwood", and beneficiary to the sovereign trust known as "we the people"; and paramount, priority claimant to all rights, title and interest in the trust-estate known as "Rodger Theodore Atwood II" (see exhibit-A).

Petitioner, unschooled in the art of law, and laboring in the most challenging conditions, humbly requests your honor to look to the equitable substance rather than the form while considering the premises herein.

Petitioner brings this bill in equity against Respondent(s) to enforce his equitable rights to constructive fraud, redemption, account and injunction under the common-law and inherent equity.

Opening Preface:

A well known author in the field of equity jurisprudence, Joseph Pomeroy, phrased "the single most profound element in all equity jurisprudence is the right to equity of redemption." Along similiar lines, Supreme Court Justice, Joseph Story, wrote in his Treatise on Equity, "historically it has been held that such a right is so innate that it could not be separated from the heir even with his contractual consent."

Background:

In 2015 [estate of] petitioner entered into a plea [criminally] in a court at law for statutory cause of "criminal forfeiture", "conspiracy to distribute and possession with intent to distribute" and "attempt to distribute and possess with intent to distribute marijuana", (21 USC § 853(p), 21 USC § 846 and 841(b)(1)(c) respectively) in re: UNITED STATES OF AMERICA V. RODGER T. ATWOOD, II, United States District Court, Middle District of Pennsylvania, case no: 1:12-cr-0055-01, and 1:13-cr-0260-01, now closed, hereinafter "judgment deed". Though the method used was clearly unorthodox, the ultimate intent was to procure equity of redemption on behalf of himself and others.

Premises:

Petitioner herein declares, charges and makes known his equitable rights and claims to the following: (a) the maxims and principles of law and equity known as the "unwritten law" (b) the sovereign trust known as "we the people" (declaration of independence, seventeen hundred and seventy six) (c) the trust-estates known as "Rodger Theodore Atwood, II", "RODGER T. ATWOOD, II", "ATWOOD RODGER THEODORE II" (see exhibit-B) (d) all assets, interests, proceeds, derivatives and property originating from/by/through case no's 1:12-cr-0055-01 and 1:13-cr-0260-01 in the United States District Court, Middle District of Pennsylvania (e) all assignable and subrogation interests in all creditor's claims and rights against aforementioned trust-estates.

Petitioner charges, claims and declares that the "JUDGMENT IN A CRIMINAL CASE" no: 1:12-cr-0055-01 and 1:13-cr-0260-01 hereafter "judgment deed" in the UNITED STATES OF AMERICA V. RODGER T. ATWOOD, II is an equitable mortgage.

Petitioner gives notice of his claim to all rights in the "judgment deed" as a "mortgage" whereby the trust-estate of petitioner is the Drawee and Respondent(s) is the maker, and petitioner is the surety held as collateral until satisfaction of said mortgage.

"Judgment deed" having been bundled into an investment pool, given a CUSIP number and described as a Collateralized Mortgage Obligation or "CMO"; Petitioner seeks the aid of this equity court to acknowledge and affirm his equitable rights to said "judgment deed" as a mortgage.

Petitioner, in accordance with equity jurisprudence, does hereby tender to the clerk of the court a "Bond for all court costs" with this bill in equity as necessary and proper "to do equity" and perfect his interest in the "judgment deed."

Petitioner seeks the aid of the equity court to acknowledge and affirm his equitable rights and decree that said obligation of "judgment deed" is hereby settled and discharged, and petitioner as surety is exonerated from any further liability to said "judgment deed" and granted all rights of subrogation held by Respondent(s). "Equity favors the redemption of a thing held in pawn."

In acknowledgement that consideration having been tendered and ignored, yet remaining in possession of Respondent(s) (see exhibit-C), Petitioner brings his claim to enforce his equitable right of redemption upon said "judgment deed" and regain all property (collateral) held by, or under control of Respondent(s). "Reprobata pecunia liberat solventum - "a tender refused releases the person paying."

"All officials...are compellable to account by the beneficiary in Chancery" - Henry Gibson. Petitioner seeks the aid of this equity court to direct by a decree or writ of sequestration against Respondent(s) to enforce said redemption and the immediate return of all collateral and property to petitioner; and further seeks a decree directing Respondent(s) to account for all property related to "judgment deed" sold or held in the public or private.

In as much as debtor's prison has been abolished in this country, the means used to enforce specific obligations has not. Commitment for contempt (Mittimus) is an age old method used to enforce obligations, however inequitably petitioner entered into said "judgment deed" now being enforced by commitment. Petitioner only now comes to understand the scope of his ignorance in said "judgment deed" which caused the contempt of court. In comprehension thereof, petitioner acknowledges and confesses, freely and with humility, his error in causing the contempt and expresses his repentance to the court. "Eodem ligamine quo ligatum est dissolvitur - An obligation is dissolved by the same bond which created it."

In light of the above, petitioner resigns as trustee of the trust-estates known as "Rodger Theodore Atwood, II", "Rodger T. Atwood, II", "RODGER THEODORE ATWOOD, II", and "ATWOOD RODGER THEODORE, II", along with Tyrone of the family of Atwood, and requests your honorable Chancellor to appoint a receiver to manage the affairs of said trust-estates for the benefit of the beneficiaries, and purge petitioner's contempt.

Petitioner charges, claims and asserts that, Respondent(s), under false pretenses, prayed upon the lack of knowledge of petitioner and abused their position of confidence to force petitioner to accept suretyship for a statute violation, which is actually a mortgage (Roman pignus pledge), by holding petitioner without his consent and without consideration for three years until petitioner signed a contract for suretyship (plea agreement). "Non est lex sed servitus, ad ea teneriquibus non consenseris - it is not law but servitude to be bound by what you have not consented to."

Petitioner, after being deprived of sleep, nutritious food, sunlight, and chained at the wrists, feet and waist for hours on end, did finally relent and "Plea Agreement"/naked agreement - "Nuda pactio obligationem non parit - A naked agreement does not create an obligation."

In further evidence of constructive fraud, and with intent to enforce said obligation/naked agreement, Respondent(s) brought a statutory claim (ma'la pro'hibita) against petitioner's trust-estate, at law, under contempt, disguised under pretense of a criminal process (ma'la in'se), to illicit a "judgment deed" (mortgage), with petitioner as the collateral (surety). Said actions were clearly intended to (and succeeded in) depriving petitioner of his equitable rights, while securing collateral for a mortgage by using tortious threat of imprisonment under pretense of criminality, so as to give appearance of no equitable remedy available to petitioner.

"Extortio est srimen quando quis colors officii estorquest quod non est debitum" - extortion is a crime, when, by color of office, any person extorts what is not due." For misrepresentations and actions by Respondent(s) under constructive fraud, petitioner seeks the aid of the equity court for a decree to relieve petitioner of all obligations in "judgment deed", and deliver up said "judgment deed" to be cancelled.

Petitioner states, asserts and claims that due to the nature of this suit and in consideration that Respondent(s) have participated, through color of office and actions at law, in trespassing upon the rights of the Petitioner, by misleading and deceptive behavior under false pretenses, rising to the level of constructive fraud; petitioner seeks the aid of this equity court for a writ of injunction against Respondent(s) and their agents, enjoining them and those they have influence over, from committing any retaliatory acts against petitioner, for tendering this bill in equity.

Prayer for relief:

Petitioner prays this equity court and your honorable Chancellor consider the requests expressed by the Petitioner in the foregoing Premises, and affirm by decree or other act, the relief prayed for therein and below:

That your honor decree said "judgment deed" to be extinguished and said surety to be exonerated; and that all rights of subrogation be granted by Petitioner;

That by decree, and/or writ of sequestration or restitution, said "judgment deed" be redeemed and all collateral be returned to petitioner forthwith; and Respondent(s) be compelled to account;

That by decree all contempt in case no's: 1:12-cr-0055-01 and 1:13-cr-0260-01 and in "judgment deed" be purged and cured; Mittimus terminated;

That the honorable Chancellor grant petitioner the writ of subpoena to require the Respondent(s) to answer this bill in full and under oath - "in a judicial proceeding, nothing is believed unless proved upon oath.

Respectfully Tendered,
